

Hi, good morning,

This week is the beginning of the “Season after Pentecost.”

The liturgical colour is green, so please add something green to your worship centre, Have you exchanged your candle yet? (tea-light don't last as long as they used to.) The season ends on “The Reign of Christ” Sunday, the week before the First Sunday of Advent -Nov 29th this year. It's the longest season of the Christian calendar. 23 Sundays, if you're counting (Des).

If you're getting the white envelope in the mail, and if you are missing a page of the sermon, or the prayers, or anything, please let me know and I will drop it off – you don't want to miss a single word!

Or, if you receive the wrong week entirely ..it's been known to happen.

(If you'd like a drive-way visit from me, please let me know)

Thought for the Day “In your desperation, you opened your heart in prayer, and what happened? You didn't get a miracle to avert tragedy. But you discovered people around you, and God beside you, and strength within you to help you survive the tragedy.”

Harold S. Kushner

Second Thought for the Day

Jesus would say to us during Covid-19:

“Quit going to the grocery store every day. Surely you have a little bread, maybe can of tuna at home. Make it work. It will work. Trust me.”

Rev. Joanna Rotich

Don't forget we are the Body of Christ.

We need each other as we go out...slowly.

blessings,
